

25/03/2019

More reports of attacks on Christian villages in central Nigeria

Another series of attacks against Christian villages in central Nigeria were reported over the weekend, with 15 communities targeted. The death toll was not immediately reported, although numerous homes were destroyed, as well as nine churches.

The activity of radical Islamic insurgents in Nigeria's middle belt since January 2019 has resulted in 25 villages being attacked just in Nasarawa state alone.