His Grace Bishop Evmenios of Kerasounta had the honour of conducting his first baptism since his consecration to the Holy Episcopate

On Saturday 18 of December, with the blessing of Archbishop Makarios of Australia, His Grace Bishop Evmenios of Kerasounta had the honour of conducting his first baptism since his consecration to the Holy Episcopate.
Kevin underwent and completed our Archdiocese Catechism course which is run throughout the year by Mr. Phillip Papagiannopoulos at our Archiepiscopal Monastery of Axion Estin. Kevin comes from a French agnostic background.
We congratulate Kevin on his entry into the Sacred and Holy Orthodox Church and wish Him and His Wife Kaliopi, many quality and fruitful years !
