22/12/2021

Annual Christmas message by Archbishop Greece Ieronymos

The Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos, on Wednesday issued his annual Christmas message, calling on the faithful to strive for the preservation of unity, avoiding any type of extremism and fanaticism.

He added: “Let us not cease to be next to each other, with love, hope, understanding and patience, supporting and protecting ourselves and others… and primarily resting our hope in the Newborn Lord.”