24/12/2021

Patriarch of Alexandria Theodoros II: Supreme gift given to humanity with Nativity of Christ must prevail

The Pope and Patriarch of Alexandria and All Africa, His Most Divine Beatitude Theodoros II, this week, in his Christmas message, called on the world's powerful to make sure that the supreme gift given to humanity with the Nativity of Christ prevails. His Most Divine Beatitude said this gift brings peace and equality to peoples, and fills their hearts with love and hope.