Patriarch John X Contacts President Aoun to Offer Greetings

Patriarch John X made a phone call to greet the President of the Lebanese Republic, General Michel Aoun, with the Nativity.

In His call to President Aoun, His Beatitude wished glorious holidays, praying to God the return of stability and security to Lebanon. His Beatitude also stressed to President Aoun that utmost efforts should be invested by all the concerned parties to unite as a single hand in order to offer a normal life to the country in a way that first secures a decent life for the well-deserving Lebanese people.
