Best wishes for speedy recovery of Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew conveyed by Prince al Nahyan, the UAE’s deputy premier

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, received more messages of best wishes and recuperation, the latest coming from Prince Saif bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the deputy Prime Minister of the United Arab Emirates.
The UAE dignitary called the Ecumenical Patriarch on Tuesday and wished him a quick recovery, as the former tested positive for the Covid-19 virus last week.

On his part, His All Holiness thanked and expressed his best wishes to the Prince and the noble people of the Emirates. The Ecumenical Patriarch also expressed satisfaction over his second visit to Abu Dhabi last September and his thanks for the kind hospitality.
