

Ieronymos condolences over passing of Archbishop of Australia Stylianos

Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos, on Wednesday expressed his condolences and particular heartache over the passing of Archbishop of Australia Stylianos.

In a statement, Ieronymos notes: "I knew him for many years and we enjoyed a sincere brotherly friendship. He was a particularly charismatic hierarch, a tremendous theologian, a prolific author, a pioneering minister and a bold helmsman of the Church of Australia. He was an internationally known personality with a global reputation. May his memory live forever" His Beatitude, Ieronymos, emphasized.
