

Feast day of St. Anthony the Great

The Church today venerates the memory of St. Anthony the Great, considered the founder of monasticism in the East. On the occasion of the feast day, the online platform Pemptousia has posted several features and documentaries on the life and works of the 3rd century saint.