

01/02/2022

Bishop of Mileševa Atanasije meets with educators

The Bishop of Mileševa, His Grace Atanasije, met this week with the directors of primary and secondary education in the southwest Serbian region, with both sides agreeing on continued cooperation in order to resolve long-standing problems that plague the education sector in the southeast European country.

Educators visited the Bishop on the occasion of his name day, the feast day of St. Athanasius, as celebrated with the Julian calendar.