01/04/2019

Terror against remaining Christians continues in Somalia

Reports of almost daily kidnappings of members of Somalia's tiny Christian community continue. Most of the victims are young and teenage girls, with gruesome details citing female genital mutilation and then forced marriages to Muslim men. Resistance to forced conversation is often punished by beheading.

Strife-plagued Somalia, in the Horn of Africa, is, according to data, the third most dangerous country in the world for Christians.