04/02/2022

Man of God’ screened in SW Serbia

The latest screening of the award-winning film “Man of God”, which recounts the life and works of St. Nektarios of Aegina, took place on Wednesday at the cultural center of the southwest Serbian city of Priboj.

Among the audience members, which filled the cultural center, was the Bishop of Mileseva, His Grace Athanasios, clerics of the bishopric and local office-holders.

