14/02/2022

Archbishop of Albania Anastasios: Pride a spiritual virus that has for centuries plagued humanity

The Archbishop of Durres, Tirana and All Albania, His Beatitude Anastasios, in a sermon on the occasion of the Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee, referred to what he called the “…spiritual virus of pride and its mutations, which have for centuries plagued humanity and societies”.

His Beatitude officiated at the Divine Liturgy at the Cathedral of the Resurrection in the Albanian capital.