Second part of mini-series ‘St. Paisios – Farasa to the Heavens’ airs on Greek television

The second part of the Greek-language series “St. Paisios – From Farasa to the Heavens”, aired on Thursday evening on the Athens-based broadcaster Mega channel.

In its debut last week, the series, produced by the St. Maximos the Greek Institute, was the most watched evening program of the day, with viewers estimated as exceeding 1.5 million.

The same top rating is expected to be recorded for the second part of the inspirational mini-series, which recounts the life and works of 20th century St. Paisios.
