22/02/2022

Archbishop of Albania Anastasios received in Athens by Greek PM Mitsotakis

The Archbishop of Tirana, Durres and All Albania, His Beatitude Anastasios, was received on Tuesday at the Maximos Mansion government seat in Athens by Greek Prime Minister Kyriakos Mitsotakis.

The latter conveyed his respect to the person of the Archbishop of Albania and declared his full support for the spiritual, social and educational work of the Archdiocese of Albania.
On His part, Archbishop Anastasios noted that the Greek prime minister has always been close to those in need.

(Dimitris Papamitsos / Greek Prime Minister’s Office)