Metropolitan of Austria Arsensios expressed grief, concern over situation in Ukraine

The Ecumenical Patriarchate’s Metropolitan of Austria, His Eminence Arsensios, expressed his grief and concern over the situation in Ukraine, while explicitly condemning what he called as a Russian invasion.

His Eminence spoke after officiating at services on Sunday at the Cathedral of the Holy Trinity in Vienna, praying together with congregants from the Ukrainian Church’s St Vladimir and St. Olga parishes in Austria for peace to prevail.
