

05/04/2019

Com't of Representatives of Orthodox Churches in EU calls for turnout in upcoming Europarlament elex

The Committee of Representatives of Orthodox Churches in the European Union this week called on European citizens to vote in the upcoming May European parliament election.

Members of the Committee are also participating in a conference at the European Parliament entitled "The next day in Syria: A path towards the resilience of Syrian people."

