Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia Ilia II: Please do all that’s possible to stop the bloodshed, to stop the war

The Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia, His Holiness & Beatitude Ilia II, spoke on the great virtue of forgiveness, as he said, in a sermon to congregants on Sunday at the Holy Trinity Cathedral in Tbilisi.

The Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia also referred directly to the war in Ukraine, underlining that “… we pray, we attempt to avoid a worsening of the situation. Our people have collected food and clothing to help the people; we will do more. Please do all that is possible to stop the bloodshed, to stop the war.”
