

Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia receives visiting president of Moldova

The Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, His Holiness Kirill, this week received the visiting president of Moldova, Igor Dodon, at the Patriarchal seat in Moscow.

In his greeting, His All Holiness welcomed the Moldavian head of state by noting that “every time you arrive in the Russian capital, we visit us. This demonstrates a particular stance on issues affecting Orthodoxy. We view you as a head of state that has Orthodoxy in his heart.”