Homily by Archbishop of Albania Anastasios pleads for end to war, return of peace in Ukraine

The Metropolitan of Amantia, His Eminence Nathanial, on the Sunday of Orthodoxy read out a homily, issued on Feb. 28, by the Archbishop of Durres, Tirana and All Albania, His Beatitude Anastasios. His Beatitude called for an end to the war in Ukraine and for the faithful to intensify their prayers for peace.

The homily was read out during the Divine Liturgy at the Cathedral of the Resurrection in Tirana, officiated by the Metropolitan, and attended by His Beatitude Anastasios.
