Hierarchical Service of Holy Unction at the Church of the Archangels, Mentone

The sacrament of Holy Unction was performed at the Greek Orthodox Church of the Holy Archangels, Mentone, in a atmopshere of prayer and devoutness.

With a lot of devoutness, The faithful Christians came to the Sacrament of the Holy Unction, presided over by His Grace Bishop Kyriakos of Sozopolis, on Monday, March 14, at the Greek Orthodox Church of the Holy Archangels for a health and recovery of a sick parishioner.

All those present for the Sacrament, prayed with pain of soul and with much love for the recovery of their sister in Christ.

His Grace, Bishop Kyriakos of Sozopolis, wished the faithful to live and experience the greatness of Great and Holy Lent by living the sacraments and the all-night services of our church.

His Grace thanked Fr. Jordan Krikelis who was accompanying Him to the Church and Fr. Matthew Papadopoulos for the participation and the hospitality in the parish of Mentone.
