08/04/2022

First season of mini-series on life, works of 20th century St. Paisios concludes

The first season of the biographical and devotional series “From Farasa to the Heavens”, the Greek-language mini-series recounting the life and works of 20th century St. Paisios, concluded on Thursday evening with the ninth episode.
The mini-series, broadcast by Athens-based Mega Channel, so far has achieved the highest ratings in the specific evening slot that it is broadcast.

The series is a production of the St. Maximus the Greek Institute.