11/04/2022

Easing of pandemic restrictions after Easter in Greece

The Greek government on Monday essentially announced an easing of Covid-19-related measures immediately after Easter Sunday, on April 24.
Nevertheless, the relevant health minister warned that the pandemic is still prevalent, even after Easter, in the month of May.