Northcote: Lenten Vespers presided over by His Grace Bishop Evmenios of Kerasounta

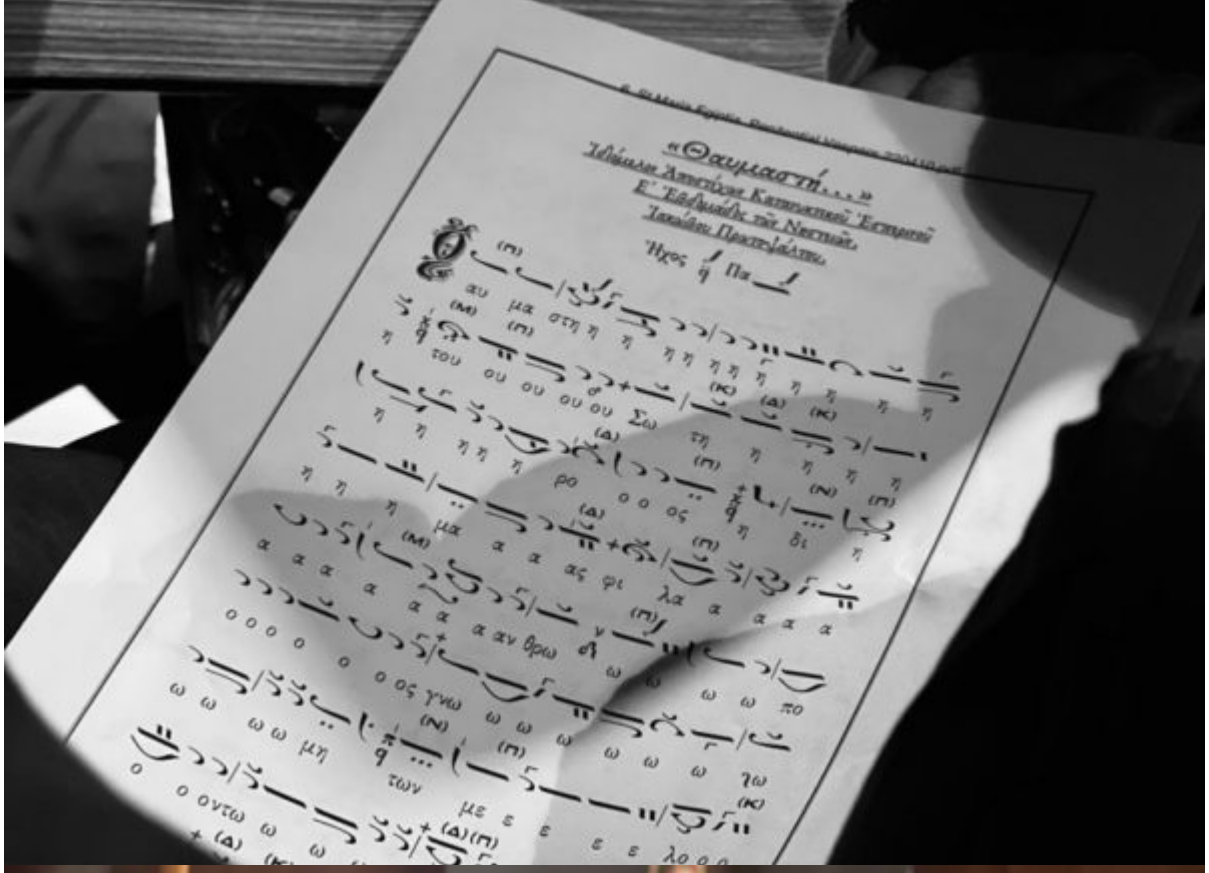

On Sunday evening the 10th April at the parish of St Vasilios in Brunswick, His Grace Bishop Evmenios of Kerasounta officiated over the last Lenten Vespers for the year.

His Grace found this opportunity to thank everyone, clergy and laity for attending these services during Great Lent but also expressed His Eminence's appreciation and His to the Chanters who diligently dedicate their time and attend these services and make them possible.

On behalf of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia, His Grace wished the chanters and everyone in attendance strength and patience for the upcoming Holy Week.

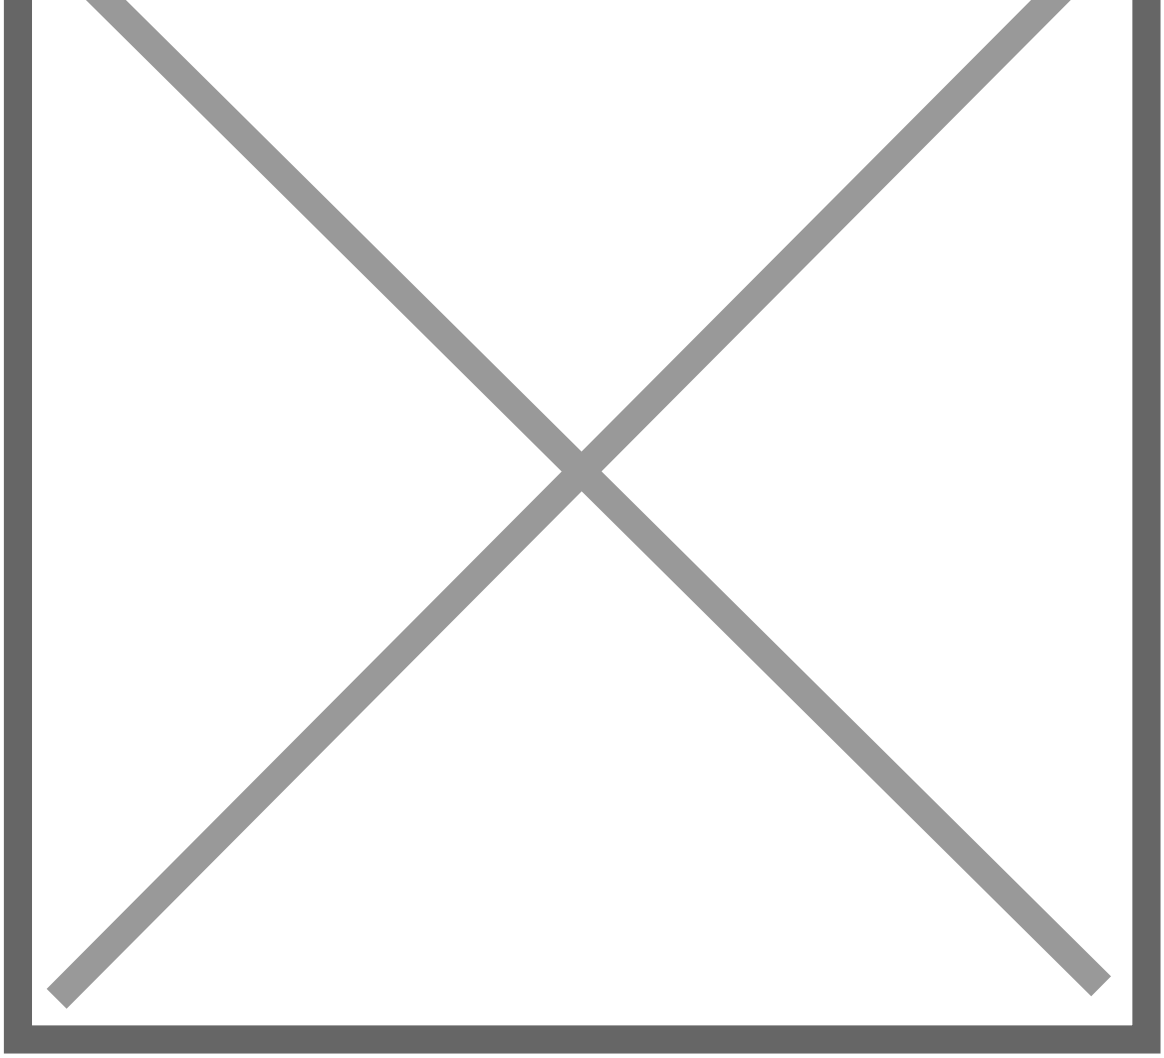

His Grace, Bishop Evmenios also encouraged the faithful to actively participate in the services of Holy Week to attain strength and courage from what our Holy Church provides us at this time.

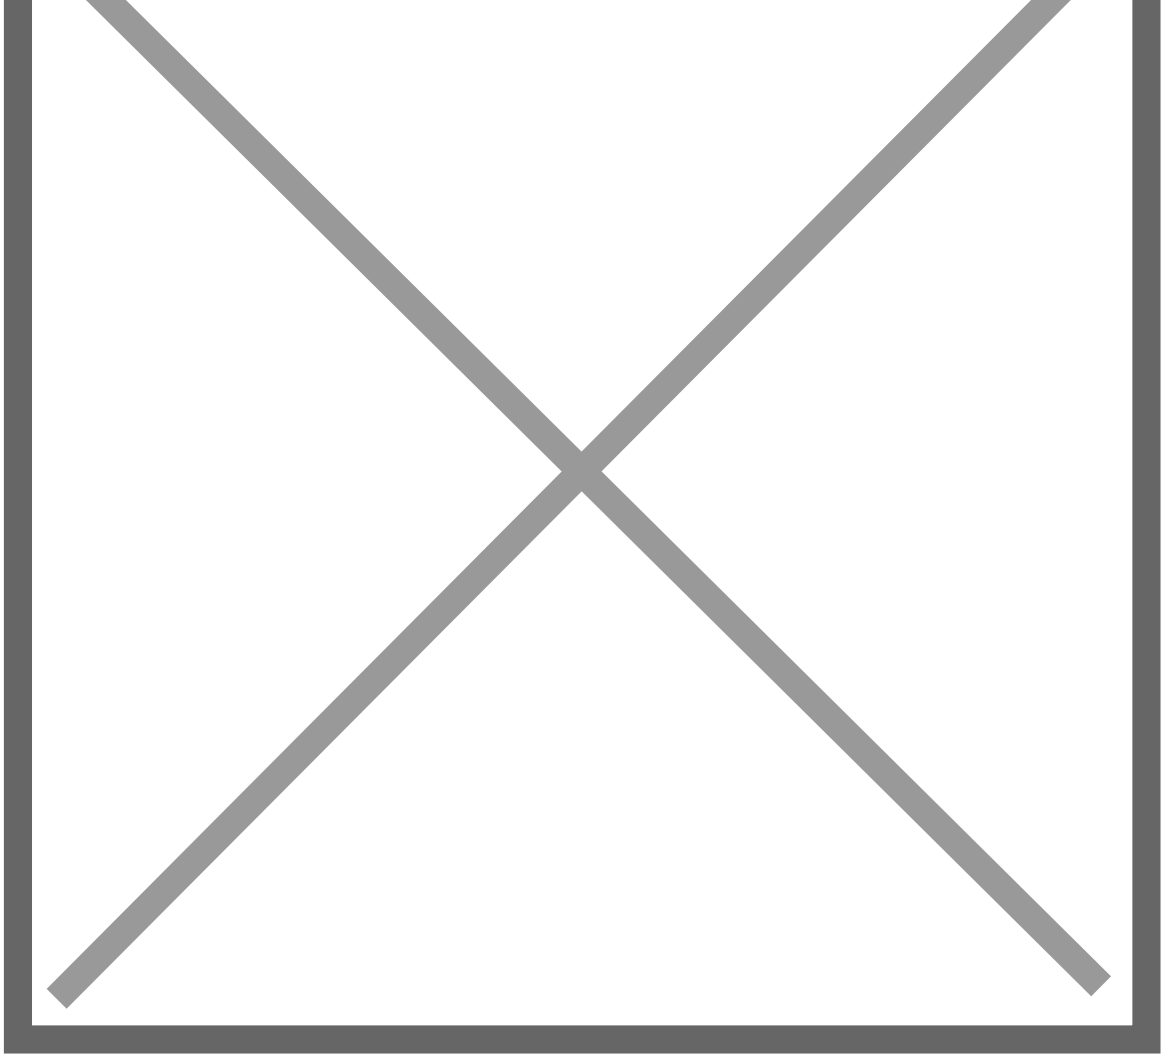

Bishop Evmenios also conveyed the love and affection of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia to all and wished them a good Resurrection.
