

Legal battle between Munich, Greek state over delayed construction of school

A long-standing legal battle between the municipality of Munich and the Greek state over the utterly delayed construction of a new Greek school in the Bavarian city was detailed this week in an article by the Süddeutsche Zeitung newspaper.

The paper reports that the municipality is intent on demolishing the construction site, where the school was originally to be built some 20 years ago.