His Grace Bishop Bartholomew of Charioupolis at the church of St George Hobart for the Compline service and spiritual talk

Last evening His Grace Bishop Bartholomew of Charioupolis visited Hobart, Tasmania and presided at the Great Compline service at the church of St George.

Assisting His Grace was Parish Priest of Holy Trinity Hobart Reverend Father Dimitrios Katsis.

Following the service His Grace gave a talk on Holy Week. He explained the historical and theological significance of each day of Holy Week.

In conclusion His Grace conveyed the love and blessings of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia and on His behalf wished everyone a happy and blessed feast of Easter.
