13/04/2022

First season episodes of mini-series on life of St. Paisios to be re-broadcast during Easter Holy Week

Due to the popularity of first season of the biographical and devotional series “From Farasa to the Heavens”, the Greek-language mini-series recounting the life and works of 20th century St. Paisios, the Mega television channel will re-broadcast the first nine episodes next week, which is Holy Easter Week.
The mini-series has so far achieved the highest ratings in the specific evening slot in which it was broadcast.

The series is a production of the St. Maximus the Greek Institute.