Archontariki with Elder Archimandrite Petros held on Thurs.

The Patriarchal and Stavropegic Monastery of St John the Baptist, in Essex, England, and the online platform Pemptousia, on Thursday hosted the latest digital archontariki with the Elder Archimandrite Petros, the Abbot of the Monastery.
The Elder Petros spoke on the theme of the prophetic character of Palm Sunday.

Archontariki in Greek means a monastery’s guest house.
