

Ecumenical Patriarch opens student literature con'f at historic Zografeion Lyceum

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, opened the 7th International Student Literature Conference at the Greek-language Zografeion Lyceum on Wednesday, with the conference this year entitled “Antonis Samarakis: The Eternal Youth”.

Pupils from the around the Bosphorus metropolis are participating, along with students from Greece, Cyprus and other countries. Academics, educators and numerous personalities from teh world of arts & letters will also participate.