Holy Light from Jerusalem to Bucharest

The Holy Light will be transported by plane from Jerusalem to Bucharest this year on Holy Saturday, and then from the airport to parishes around the country, according to the Patriarchate of Romania.
The Reverend Archimandrite Theophilos, the representative of the Romanian Patriarchate in the Holy Land, will personally convey the Holy Light.

In the evening, a service to welcome the Holy Light will be officiated by the Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, at the Patriarchal Cathedral of Bucharest.
