‘From Farasa to the Heavens’ mini-series on life of St. Paisios broadcast throughout Holy & Great Easter Week

Due to the popularity of first season of the biographical and devotional series “From Farasa to the Heavens”, the Greek-language mini-series that recounts the life and works of 20th century St. Paisios, the Mega television channel continues to broadcast the nine episodes of the first season through Holy & Great Easter Week.

The mini-series achieved the highest ratings in the specific evening slot in which it was broadcast over the past few months.

The series is a production of the St. Maximus the Greek Institute.
