Canberra: Service of the Resurrection of the Lord in the Nation’s Capital

For the first time ever in the history of the Greek Orthodox Church in Canberra, a Bishop celebrated the service of the Resurrection of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

With the Blessings of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia, His Grace Bishop Bartholomew of Charioupolis led the service assisted by the Parish Priest Very Reverend Petros Kipouros.

Multitudes of people flocked to the Parish and Community of St Nicholas in Canberra chanting the Christ is Risen hymn.

After the proclamation of Christ is Risen , His Grace conveyed to all the love and best wishes of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia and openly thanked the Archbishop on behalf of the people of Canberra for creating the Archdiocesan District, an expression of love that His,Eminence has for the people of Canberra. Moreover His Grace spoke about the Light of Christ bringing hope and joy thus for this reason we should not be in despair or sad . He then encouraged the faithful to
