

13/04/2019

Polish Orthodox Church working to open spiritual libraries in prisons

The Polish Autocephalous Orthodox Church this week commenced a program called “Liberation through Literature”, an outreach initiative aimed to establish libraries with spiritual materials in correctional facilities around the country.

The program is managed by the Sts. Cyril & Methodius Orthodox Cultural Center in Warsaw.