05/05/2022

Second screening of award-winning film ‘Man of God’ in Adelaide

The second screening of the award-winning film “Man of God” in the Australian city of Adelaide is scheduled for Wednesday, May 11, with the blessing of the Bishop of Sinope, His Grace Silouan.

The film, which has set ticket sales records in Greece and Cyprus and has been well-received by movie-goers around the world, depicts the life, works and tribulations of 20th century St. Nektarios of Aegina.