

Fundraising concert in Bucharest held at St. Eleftherios cathedral

A fundraising concert organized this week by the society of Orthodox students of the school of theology in the Romanian capital raised more than 3,800 euros.

The event was held at the St. Eleftherios Cathedral in Bucharest, where more than 300 people attended a concert of psaltic music performed by the Tronos Group and the Royal Choir.

The raised funds will be donated to the Pro Vita benevolent foundation.
