13/05/2022

His Grace Bishop Bartholomew of Charioupolis visits Israel’s Ambassador to Australia

Today, on the 13 May, 2022, His Grace Bishop Bartholomew of Charioupolis upon invitation visited the Embassy of Israel and met with the Ambassador, His Excellency Amir Maimon.

During their meeting they discussed matters of common cultural interest and the promotion of common love and the key historical ties which unite both peoples.

Moreover His Grace and His Excellency spoke about a common initiative that will strengthen our ties of friendship.

His Grace reinterated the importance of educating our people in speaking against discrimination and antisemitism.

His Grace conveyed the love and best wishes of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios and invited His Excellency to the offices of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese in Sydney.

vema.com.au