Greek culture minister Mendoni continues tour of southern Albania; received by Metropolitan of Gjirokaster Demetrios

Greece’s culture minister, Lina Mendoni, on Thursday continued an official visit to Albania, visiting ethnic Greek villages in southern Albania, schools and archaeological sites.
She was also received by local office-holders, educators and the resident Metropolitan of Gjirokaster, His Eminence Demetrios.

The Orthodox Metropolis’ education program to promote the Greek language and culture dominated talks.
