27/05/2022

The Archbishop of Australia is the keynote speaker at the 3rd International Conference on the Hellenic Diaspora

“The Orthodox Church and its mission in the world” is the topic that will be developed by His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia, as a keynote speaker at the 3rd International Conference entitled “Contemporary and Diachronic Aspects of the Hellenic Diaspora”, which is co-organized by the Australian Charles Darwin University and the Greek Universities of the Aegean and Macedonia.

The International Conference on the Hellenic Diaspora will take place over three days from 26 to 28 May 2022, with the participation of sixty academic researchers from various universities in Greece, Australia, America, Canada, Europe and Africa, who will highlight thematic units related to the Church, language, literature, culture, history and daily life of the Hellenic Diaspora over time, both in Australia and elsewhere on earth.

The speech of His Eminence Archbishop Makarios of Australia is scheduled for 6.45 p.m. (ACST) on the afternoon of Thursday, May 26 (12.15 pm, Greece time), immediately after the official opening of the Conference.

Please note that the International Conference is open to the public and those interested can follow the work of the first day online, after registering, free of charge, through the following hyperlink: https://charlesdarwinuni.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_I0Iigs_hT8KotwKma_IaBw.

For the other two days of the Conference, registrations are also free via the following hyperlinks:

– For Friday, May 27: https://charlesdarwinuni.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_EpOtlWR5QeSLWTU71H0HcQ.

– For Saturday, May 28: https://charlesdarwinuni.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_tVyF-DSLRpGeDxXRBYOLIA.

The full program of the International Conference is available at:

vema.com.au