

17/04/2019

Romanian Patriarch refers to excellent relations with Israel

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, this week received Israel's new ambassador to the country, David Saranga, in Bucharest.

Daniel cited the excellent relations between Romania and Israel, with a prominent example being the pilgrimage to the Holy Land annually organized by the Romanian Patriarchate.