

18/04/2019

Holy Light to be again transported to Polish Orthodox Church this year

An announcement by the Polish Autocephalous Orthodox Church this week notes that with God's grace and with the support of the faithful, the Holy Light will again be transported this year to the country from the Holy Sepulcher Cathedral in Jerusalem.

The Holy Light has been delivered to the Polish Orthodox Church every year since 2009.