Metropolitan Cleopas of Sweden Presents Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew with Commemorative Album on the Patriarchal Visit to Stockholm

His Eminence Metropolitan Cleopas of Sweden and All Scandinavia presented His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew with a commemorative album dedicated to the Patriarchal visit to Stockholm that took place in Fall 2019.

Metropolitan Cleopas, who had an audience with His All-Holiness on Thursday, June 9, 2022, informed him of the ministry taking place in the Holy Metropolis of Sweden and All Scandinavia, while also conveying the deepest respect and heartfelt wishes of both himself personally and the flock of his ecclesiastical Eparchy to Patriarch Bartholomew on the occasion of his nameday.

His All-Holiness thanked Metropolitan Cleopas for the commemorative album whose publication he oversaw, expressing his Patriarchal satisfaction over the tireless efforts he puts forth, together with his coworkers, to serve the flock of the Metropolis entrusted to him by the Mother Church, and asked him to convey his Patriarchal blessings and paternal wishes to all the faithful. Moreover, he congratulated the Metropolitan of Sweden and expressed his Patriarchal satisfaction that the responsible authorities dismissed all the accusations made against the Metropolis over supposed financial improprieties.
