

19/04/2019

Romanian Orthodox cleric devotes life to orphans, abandoned children

Father Nicolae Tanase referred to the central role, as he said, played by the family in the life of an individual and in promoting Christian values.

The Romanian Orthodox cleric, who has six children of his own, has devoted his life to protecting orphans and abandoned children.