

St John of Damascus - Institute of Theology: Activities during Lenten Season

On the occasion of Lenten season, the seminarians at the Saint John of Damascus Institute of Theology at the University of Balamand carried out a series of pastoral visits to several parishes in the Archdiocese of Tripoli, Al-Koura, and their dependencies. In their visits, the seminarians joined the parishioners in the service of Great Compline in Miniye and celebrated the Presanctified Liturgy in Aafsadiq. In addition, Archimandrite Maxim Jamal, Director of students' life, who accompanied the seminarians with their visits, delivered a spiritual in speech in Miniye on the significance of fasting.
