

21/04/2019

Ecumenical Patriarch expresses abhorrence with terrorist attacks against Sri Lanka's Christians

The Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, on Sunday expressed his abhorrence and sadness over the coordinated terrorist attacks against Churches and hotels in Colombo, Sri Lanka, where Roman Catholics on the island nation celebrated Easter Sunday.

Dozens of people were killed and hundreds injured in yet another attack against Christians around the world.