Patriarch of All Romania Daniel officiates at services held at Hall of Romanian Saints

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, on Sunday officiated at the services held at the Hall of Romanian Saints, located at the Patriarchal residence in Bucharest.

His Beatitude underlined that Romanian saints are divided into categories, such as clerics that testified for their faith; to martyrs, but also to Christian parents and grandparents who meekly sacrificed themselves, transmitting their faith to younger generations with their examples.
