Patriarch of All Romania Daniel receives visiting Serbian FM Nikola Selaković

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, this week received the visiting foreign affairs minister of Serbia, Nikola Selaković, at the Patriarchal Hall in Bucharest.
His Beatitude emphasized the importance that the two fraternal Churches, the Romanian and Serbian Orthodox Churches, hold for the history and spirituality of the two neighboring peoples.

On his part, Selaković conveyed the greetings of the Patriarch of Serbia, His Holiness Porfirije, and of the president of Serbia. The minister also expressed the gratitude of the Serbian people for the support provided by Romania regarding the territorial integrity of his country.
