Bishop of Xanthoupolis Paisios officiates at service of Mega Minima at Patriarchal Cathedral of St. George

The Bishop of Xanthoupolis, His Grace Paisios, officiated at service of the Mega Minima at the Patriarchal Cathedral of St. George in Constantinople on Friday, in the presence of hierarchs, the Patriarchal court, his family, and other clergy and lay pilgrims, immediately after his ordination as bishop.
After the end of the service, the newly ordained Bishop received the congratulations and best wishes from those present.

The Divine Liturgy was officiated by the Ecumenical Patriarch, His All Holiness Bartholomew, and co-officiated by several Metropolitans of the Patriarchal throne.
