Congratulations by Moldovan president towards Orthodox parish's charitable organization

The President of Moldova, Maia Sandu, this month congratulated the charitable organization “Christian Philanthropy” of the Orthodox parish in the city of Orhei for the humanitarian aid provided to Ukrainian refugees over the past few months. President Sandu praised the devotion, as she said, of members of the group, who have contributed resources, time and energy to help people, mostly women, children and the elderly, who fled their home due to war.
