06/07/2022

Archbishop of Australia Makarios issues message of support in wake of extreme weather, floods plaguing New South Wales

The Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, this week sent a message of support to those affected by extreme weather conditions and floods that have been raging in the Sydney area and across New South Wales in recent days.
The Archbishop made special reference to first responders and work crews.