Honorable Head of St. Kyriaki conveyed for veneration to dedicated Church in Argolida prefecture

The Honorable Head of St. Kyriaki, which is preserved at Holy Monastery of the Pammegisti Taxiarches, near the southern city of Egio, was conveyed for veneration to a dedicated Church in the town of Koutsopodi, in nearby Argolida prefecture.

The Sacred Relic was welcomed by a procession of clerics and faithful at the entrance of the town and led to the celebrating cathedral.
