08/07/2022

Greek parliament designates April 6 as Day of Remembrance for Thracian Hellenism

Greek lawmakers on Thursday ratified, by majority, a law designating April 6 as a Day of Remembrance for Thracian Hellenism.

The development was greeted with satisfaction by the National Federation of Thracian Societies, whose members had long pressed for the recognition.